September 5, 2010 - Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

What in your life is a higher priority than your relationship with God? That's what Jesus wants us to look at in next Sunday's Gospel reading. What people? What work? What trial? What possessions? What friendships? What goals? What activities? What crosses do you want to get rid of that, if you do escape from them, would require you to abandon Jesus on his cross? (Hint: What sacrifices of love are you unwilling to make?) Jesus says that unless we are first and foremost committed to discipleship – learning from him and making every effort to become more like him – we are ill prepared for all the other tasks of life. In other words, we can start building toward good goals, but if our relationship with Christ is not our highest priority, we'll be unable to reach the right finish, because we will get distracted by worldly interferences and sin. We become victims instead of victors in the battles we face. Anything good that we do achieve will be only temporary, because it falls short of the kingdom of God and has no eternal value. A disciple is a student. We learn from Jesus how to love others, and sometimes this is a real cross to carry. He teaches us how to live a life of joyful love but also of unconditional, forgiveness-filled love. We also learn from Jesus how to put up boundaries against those who interfere with our spiritual growth, and this too can be a cross. The strength to follow Christ and become more and more like him every day requires a conscious effort to grow stronger in our ability to carry our crosses while uniting ourselves to his cross and to his strength. When we lack this inner bond to Christ, we stumble and fall, crushed by the weight of our crosses. But if we are willing to make sacrifices out of love for others, like Jesus did, we embrace him more fully and intimately than we could with any other form of prayer or worship.

Back to School Prayer

Spirit of God, fill our children's hearts with a desire to seek truth and rejoice in beauty. Help them to know what is pleasing to you and to understand what is right and good in your sight.

Give them the spirit of learning that may please you by their thoughts and love you in your creation.

Give all teachers your constant encouragement and guide them in their good work.

Spirit of God, make them effective witnesses of your truth to all whose lives they touch.

We ask this in the name of Jesus the Lord.

Amen.

Newman's Idea of a University: In Celebration of his Beatification

St. Jerome's University - Boardroom

Saturday, September 18, 2010

9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

(Cardinal) Newman's was a voice in the wilderness ...a prophetic voice...and we may claim that the Second Vatican Council has proved the fact.

World Peace Day 2010

It has been five years since the first World Peace Day took place in Kincardine with our special guest Eva Oisson. This year we are very pleased to announce the return of Eva, a Holocaust survivor. Eva has returned to Europe and retraced her steps from her birthplace in Hungary to the death camps where she lost almost her entire family. The World Peace Day Committee invites everyone to hear Eva's story - A Story of Courage and Hope.
